

Dear Internet Librarian International 2007 Speaker:

Thank you so much for agreeing to speak at the Internet Librarian International Conference, October 8–9, 2007. We are looking forward to an exciting program and know you will play a major role in the success of this conference. Our goal is to make your experience as a speaker as rewarding as possible. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions or concerns regarding your participation in ILI 2007.

In addition to the exposure and networking benefits of speaking, all speakers receive a complimentary registration for all the conference sessions (Full 2-day conference), not including pre-conference Master Classes. Your name badge will be waiting for you at the speaker counter in the conference registration area of the Cophorne Tara Hotel — you don't have to fill in a registration form, just check in.

We will be producing a printed version of the presentations for the conference. We want to include any handouts you would like attendees to have. We are looking for papers (around 6 pages) or a one page summary, a list of URLs discussed, copies of slides to be used (for example, powerpoint 3/page), or basically anything you would like to provide as a handout. We will need these by AUGUST 15, 2007. As you prepare for your session, and perhaps create slides, keep in mind that our audience is familiar with the basics. Please start your presentation with the key messages as described in your session description. We don't want you to be rushed at the end and miss getting to what the audience really wants to hear. We appreciate your consideration and assistance in managing our audience expectations.

Please fill out and return these forms:

1. Speaker Directory/Contact Information form
2. AV Requirements form
3. Speaker Agreement and Permission Slip

As we get closer to October, the track organizer and moderator of your session, will be in touch about what room your presentation will be in, how you want to be introduced, and other last minute details. Again, thank you for taking the time to participate in ILI 2007. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.
